INFORMATION

The GCSAQ provides up to the minute information through its web site. www.turfshop.com.au/gcsaq.htm or follow the links from www.agcsa.com.au. A bi-monthly newsletter is sent out and emailed to all members. You will be able to keep abreast of changing legislation, positions vacant, machinery sales, field days, seminars and various industry movements. The introductions of these services has revolutionised and improved the speed and accuracy in which our members receive their information as well as making the GCSAQ easier to get in contact with through our email address gcsaq@agcsa.com.au.

FIELD DAYS & COUNTRY TOUR

The GCSAQ provides many education forums including a comprehensive annual country tour and field days that provide both practical and technical information. These forums also provide members the opportunity to embrace new ideas and to survey methods employed at similar golf courses to their own. The GCSAQ presents a variety of topical speakers with practical hands-on experience to give our members a diverse educational experience at all functions.

WHAT IS THE GCSAQ?

The Association is a conglomerate of professional turf managers, their assistants and a wide range of turf related specialists who have a direct connection with the golf course industry.

The Association we have today began many years ago when regular gatherings took place between greenkeepers to discuss and exchange methods and strategies in a search of higher standards of presentation for their fine turf areas.

The GCSAQ has grown considerably from those days, but the objectives have remained the same. However, these days standards demanded on golf courses have increased dramatically and the need to communicate with other turf professionals has become even more important.

As our membership grows so does our pool of information available to each member and the more influence the Association gains in matters that concern the industry and golf course superintendents themselves.
